K

Baron Rothschild

Baron James Rothschild died at Paris on Sunday in his Seventy-seventh year He was the last survivor of the five sons of Mayer Anselm of Frankfort the founder of the family and its fortunes His elder brothers were Anselm of Frankfort who died in 1855 Solomon of Vienna who died in the same year Nathan of London, who died in 1836 and Charles of Naples who died in 1855 James was thus the head of the family during the thirteen years preceding his death He had long conducted the Paris branch of the family s immense banking business and after the decease of his brothers exercised a marked control over his nephews and grand nephews who ostensibly conducted the affairs of the firm in London and the principal [illegible] of the Continent

His father as is generally known first became prominent by helping the people of Frankfort raise the heavy revenue demanded of the city by the French in 1792 A few years later he saved from the clutches of Napoleon $[illegible]000 000 which belonged to the Elector of Hesse Cassel The Elector let him have it without interest and he used it to splendid advantage during the eight years which elapsed before the fall of Napoleon For nine years more he paid only two per cent on the deposit and by that time the old banker and his sons had made millions for themselves and were well able to return the deposit to its [illegible] successor Since then the Rothschilds have been the financial kings of Europe Their loans within the past twenty years have amounted to nearly $1 000 000 000 and in 1848 they bore a loss of $40 000 000 incurred through the revolutionary outbreaks of that year without affecting their credit

To insure the concentration of their vast wealth the children of the different branches were intermarried This close breeding however began to show its deleterious effects to such a degree that the rule was recently modified and hereafter only the eldest sons are to marry their cousins One of the Neapolitan house having shown himself extravagant and unfitted for business was compelled to retire from the firm and a place himself with the millions already acquired by him Business before pleasure has always been the Rothschild motto though the subject of our notice and his younger relatives have not failed to maintain the splendor which their immense revenues enable them to support

B[illegible] F[illegible] The B[illegible] S[illegible] says The body of Bacon who was supposed to have been murdered by Sam Walters a few weeks ago has been found on the bank of Snake river several miles below the ferry by some men hunting for stock The body was much disfigured by [illegible] but the glass eye which Bacon was known to wear was found near the head This completes a chain of evidence which leaves no doubt as to Walters guilt Walters asked a continuance of his case last week to enable him to send East for money to assist him in his defense which was granted by the Court Had he consented to a trial he would probably have been cleared but finding the body of Bacon puts a different face upon the matter

[illegible] How the mischief did [illegible] ? [illegible] Why the last I saw [illegible] slumber Ah well I [illegible] out on a night more

The Daily Oregonian

SATURDAY MORNING DEC 12 1868

Congress Recalcitrates

The Oregon Rump [illegible] Congressional [illegible] whining from the [illegible] would do well to assemble at the capital at once so that words [illegible] fered for the lusty kick it has received in the seat of honor. It [illegible] its injured dignity by a [illegible] diplomatic [illegible] will fret and chafe in a manner [illegible] behold. There is certainly [illegible] Rump can be induced to follow [illegible] tion to meet in March.

When the disgraceful and insulting resolutions of our Legislature were passed and sent to Congress we predicted that they would meet with treatment similar to that which they have received. Congress could not consistently with its own dignity do anything else than treat them with the contempt they deserved. We submit to our Democratic brethren if it would not now be wise for them to cry quits. There are certainly no laurels for them to gain by repeating their insulting [illegible] ge to Congress. Another question also suggests itself here. While the memory of this insult which the Oregon Legislature has offered to Congress is still recent would it not be well to present to the perjured scoundrels some of those memorials asking for heavy subsidies? Their introduction now would be timely indeed.

Plain Talk About a Plain Matter

As we desire to do exact justice to the Unionist we reprint the following paragraph from its article of last Sunday with the correction it desires to make:

> In the last paragraph the OREGONIAN seeks to exhibit its scars and wounds received at the last Senatorial contest. It is certain that its favorite was not elected but we have no idea that the party at large ever did or ever will regret it [illegible].

The substitution of the word Senatorial for "editorial," —the latter being the word originally printed —puts a somewhat different face on the matter. The Unionist's allusion to Mr Logan in the paragraph preceding naturally led us to suppose that he was also the person meant in the last sentence of the paragraph above quoted. But as this remark has reference to the late Senatorial contest we also have a word to say about that matter.

The OREGONIAN had no favorite for Senator. After the caucus had nominated Gov Gibbs we thought it right that he should be elected. And we urged the election of the nominee as strongly as we could. We would have done the same thing had Mr Corbett, Mr Mitchell, or any other worthy gentleman received the nomination. This was the extent of the OREGONIAN's favoritism for Governor Gibbs. It has no scars or wounds to exhibit as the result of that contest. But the Republican party [illegible] red wounds on that occasion which unfortunately are not yet healed. Mr Corbett is a good Senator and a worthy gentleman. His election was, under the circumstances, satisfactory, and we have not and never have had, a word of regret to utter concerning it. The party owes no thanks to the mercenary "brigade" that it got a true and faithful man [illegible] for, for their object was to elect Nesmith and this result was prevented only by the fact that the Democratic members would not join them. And in 1870 this mercenary brigade' will be in the field for Nesmith again. In taking our present course our object has been to put the Republican party on its guard against them so that they may be prevented from doing the mischief which they have in contemplation.

How It Worked

The Pendleton greenback plank was put in the New York platform to inveigle the West into supporting the Democratic candidates. The following majorities for Grant and honesty show the result of the scheme:

Ohio	41 000
[illegible]	10 000
Illinois	51 000
[illegible]	31 000
Wisconsin	25 000
Iowa	46 000
[illegible]	24 000
Minnesota	15 000
[illegible]	18 000
[illegible]	4 000
Total	265 000

Thus it appears that the plea that Pendleton's greenback theory was demanded by the "West" was a libel on that boldly loyal and honest section of our great land.

EASY LESSONS —The Jacksonville Sentinel is endeavoring by a series of easy lessons to teach some important facts to the Albany Democrat. Here is the lesson of this week: "The Albany Democrat man is evidently laboring under some strange hallucination and is still pegging away at nigger suffrage and nigger equality. Abbot will soon discover two things if he is wise. First that the only place where Democrats can be generally successful is in the States where niggers vote—and second, that the surest way to avoid nigger equality is to choose his company. If he will persist in marrying a nigger it is his own fault." "Abbot, of the State Rights Democrat thinks the negro as a race incapable of using the ballot aright. We suppose the [illegible] 'niggers who used their ballot for Seymour and Blair command his highest respect.

A GOOD WORD —Senator Wilson in the New York Independent writes warmly of Grant, and among other things says: "Of Gen. Grant I have seen much. I have read what he has written and studied with much care his acts. I have heard him converse with public men for hours on matters pertaining to public affairs civil and military. In all the hours of his conversations to which I have listened I do not remember him to have uttered a trifling word or an illiberal or unjust sentiment." This is high praise and there is reason to believe that the good opinion of the distinguished Massachusetts Senator is cordially reciprocated by Gen Grant.

GRACEFUL —The Chicago Times two days after election surrendered about as gracefully as that thing can be done by anybody. It said: "Our Radical opponents have got things all their own way. The emigration to Salt river leaves them a clear field. We leave them at the moment of their triumph several thousand of torches, a quantity of benzine suitable for illuminating purposes, and a quantity of other traps and paraphernalia for which we have no further use. The uplands of Salt river afford no employment for much of the furniture accumulated during the late canvass."

METHODISM —The following are Methodist statistics for the Pacific coast: California 5 309 and 876 probationers; Oregon 3 416 and 989 probationers, Nevada 307 and 157 probationers. Adding the above numbers, the Methodists have a membership on the Pacific coast of 11,054, including 2,022 probationers.

The Suffrage Amendment

Some of the Democratic journals are remarking with indignation upon the proposition put forth by the Republicans to establish impartial suffrage and remind us that the Chicago platform asserted the Constitutional right of the States to control each for itself the exercise of the suffrage. But the proposition is to [illegible] the United States Constitution so as to define and fix the conditions of suffrage throughout the Union.

Objection is raised to enfranchising [illegible] masses of ignorance [illegible]. Are Democrats willing to carry out this principle by disfranchising the dense mass of ignorance and brutality in their own party? Are they willing to purge the ballot box in the city of New York for example? Among the blacks of the South there is no ignorance more dense or brutality more deplorable than that of which Seymour's majority of 70 000 in the city of New York was composed. Let any standard of intelligence be adopted as a voting qualification and the Democratic party will lose as many votes by it in the South among both whites and blacks as will the Republicans and fifty times as many in the North. The Democracy will not consent to the establishment of an intelligence qualification and the only alternative left the Republicans is to secure suffrage to all citizens of proper age.

Minister Johnson on Slavery

On the 6th of November Minister Johnson was visited by a large and influential deputation from the National Freedmen's Aid Union of Great Britain and Ireland devoted to the welfare of the American Freedmen. Mr Johnson in reply to the deputation made a long speech from which we quote the following:

Slavery is wholly inconsistent with the happiness of its victims and with the happiness of those to whom slaves belong. It has no foundation in moral, it has no foundation in Christianity. It robs men of that for which alone it is excellent and worthy to live. The slave can hardly be said to be half a man. If his body does not dwindle his mind dwindles and his heart sooner or later becomes ossified, and the same influence is brought more or less injuriously to bear upon his moral state.

When it became evident after the election of our late martyred President Lincoln that the institution would be brought into serious peril that it might in the end be destroyed the masters of the South did what perhaps they may have thought they had the constitutional right to do: secede from the Union —but for what purpose? For the purpose of perpetuating slavery and establishing a government calling itself free, having slavery as its foundation—a rotten worthless foundation that sooner or later in the providence of God was certain to eat away the structure. They raised their arms therefore against the authority of the government for the purpose of perpetuating the institution of slavery. But God in His providence so directed the blow which was designed to continue it ended in its destruction. That in process of time, and as Christian civilization advanced its destruction was inevitable I never doubted but its instant destruction that destruction which made my country free and removed from it its only blot, that destruction was I say accomplished by the instrument designed to perpetuate it.

A Political Trimmer Rewarded

Under this caption the Jacksonville Sentinel makes the following judicious and wholesome remarks:

> It is now certain that Dr J R Bayley of Corvallis has received the appointment of Supervisor of Internal Revenue for Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho. It is not quite clear why there should be any necessity for this appointment, and if there were it seems hardly just that Bayley should be the appointee. A notorious political trimmer always ready to slide over to the strongest party and never to be trusted when he offers his allegiance, it seems surprising that he should be selected for so important and lucrative appointment. When in the Legislature in 1866 he voted with the Democracy against the Fourteenth Constitutional Amendment and under the circumstances his preferment to Republicans whose services have been more eminent, and devotion to principles more steadfast, is not strict party justice. We hold that the appointment of politicians of Bailey's stripe, to offices of trust is bad policy. Men who cannot be trusted by their party and who are notoriously shaky in political principle are none too good to betray their official trust. Our party in this State will hardly stand many such appointments. It requires strengthening and we want no spies and traitors among us to sell us out.

REMARKABLE FIDELITY —Some of the Democratic leaders with an absorbing devotion something like that which characterized the good woman who 'never would desert Mr Micawber' declare that they will never abandon the Democratic organization. The determination is perfectly harmless. The people having abandoned them they will present a pretty spectacle standing alone in their firm resolve.

The following is the vote in a portion of the Fourth ward Philadelphia:

The return judges rejected the vote on the ground of palpable fraud.

PUGET SOUND

(From the Olympia Transcript)

The amount of business at the Olympia Land Office during the month of November has been quite large, and is as follows: Lands sold for cash, 9 559 26 100 acres; homestead entries, 2 540; homestead proofs, 2 540 4 100; donations 467 1 100; lands located by agricultural college scrip, act of 1847, 1 120; by military land warrants, 320; by pre-emptions 1 153 41 100. The cash sales have been mostly by speculators and in small lots, the railroad schemers being the principal buyers. If Congress would pass a law stopping the sale of lands to anybody but bona fide settlers it would be a good thing for the territory. The speculators now have too much in their hands for the common good of the people. They are not only picking up railroad lands much of which, we must admit is of little value but they are selecting every point that seems favorable to any other business hoping to realize a good round sum when the country is fully settled and wealthy. After this we may expect to see them selecting farming lands to the detriment of settlers who could only locate on a few acres of homestead just as they are now picking up coal tracts, mill sites railroad and timber lands with not any expectation of using or improving them themselves.

The surveying brig R H Fauntleroy has been engaged during the past season in making a thorough topographical and hydrographic survey of Port Madison bay and after the completion of that work on the topography and triangulation of the country between Point Wilson and Dungeness. In the former work there were about twenty five miles of shore line and some three hundred miles of sounding; about twelve thousand casts of the lead were made in and about the bay. In the work below Point Wilson there were about two hundred and fifty observations made at ten different points to connect that place with Port Townsend and some ten miles of shore line run. During the latter portion of the season the work was very much delayed by the prevailing smoke and fog.

A large mail seven bags full came in on Tuesday night bringing up the failures of last week. The mail matter over the country is increasing very fast so that the detention of one mail on the Columbia makes the succeeding one a large often a full load, that it is difficult for the stage to transport it and reach this office in schedule time.

Mrs Abel Larkin and her daughter of Esperance N Y wanted more money for dress and style than Mr L was inclined to give, so to obtain the means and gratify their wishes they [illegible] older than the other [illegible] for which [illegible] they were put under $2 000 bonds each to appear for trial.

The following additional particulars of the loss of the steamship Hibernia have been obtained: The principal cause of the disaster was the breaking of the screw by which the shaft inside of the screw pipe got loose and damaged the stern post and pipe and caused a fearful leak through which a large volume of water rushed into the hold. Every attempt was made to save the ship but failed; it was found impossible to stop the leak. The steamer was rapidly settling when the boats were lowered and the passengers all embarked. Extreme order was maintained by the ship's officers who kept the crew under complete control. They prevented all panic among the passengers. Two of the boats previously reported were saved. They were picked up by the ship Star of Hope bound for Aberdeen. The captain of the Hibernia landed at John O Groat's house.

DAMAGES AGAINST THE CITY—The recovery of damages against the city at the suit of William O'Hara and wife, was the theme of general remark yesterday. The verdict settles for the present at least the question of the liability of the city to answer for injuries resulting from defective sidewalks. Mrs. O'Hara while passing along one of our streets fell into a hole in the sidewalk and broke her leg. Upon the suit brought by her, alleging negligence on the part of the city, the jury after a few minutes' absence from the box, returned a verdict for $800 in favor of plaintiffs. other injuries of a less serious nature have been received from those [illegible] pieces of broken sidewalks, and we do not doubt that there are other cases in which damages might be claimed if the parties felt disposed to sue. It is all the more serious considering the number of traps and pitfalls to be met with everywhere that accidents are not more frequent. This case having been settled against the city, it may be expected that similar redress will be sought in the future by those who may be unfortunate enough to fall in the city's traps. In view of this would it not be well to elect a Street Commissioner and clothe him with authority to look after the condition of streets and sidewalks?

Eastern Items—We clip the subjoined items from the [illegible] of yesterday. Our fellow citizens Captain [illegible] and George Thatcher Esq started for New York [illegible] last Saturday morning via Boise City and [illegible]. Freighting for this year is about over. The [illegible] Co at present are mostly engaged in bringing [illegible] from below with which to extend their [illegible] to Walla Walla. Present indications are in favor of an early freeze up of the river [illegible] plenty of time for that before next spring. [illegible] Captain Barry's cavalry company are [illegible] en route for Arizona. A shooting scrape [illegible] at Cherry creek on the Canyon City road no [illegible] week between Frank Thompkins and Sergeant Lyon, belonging to Captain Barry's company. The Sergeant received two shots, one in the [illegible], breaking the bone, and the other in the left [illegible], from the effects of which he died in about three [illegible] after receiving the wounds. Thompkins made his [illegible] to the mountains, and was pursued by a detachment [illegible] Sergeant after him who followed his tracks until [illegible] when they returned to camp. We learn that he [illegible] giving himself up to the civil authorities and [illegible] examination until which time we refrain [illegible] anything that might prejudice his [illegible], we have already heard several conflicting [illegible] of the affair. Sergeant Lyon is said to have [illegible] an excellent man when sober but when drunk [illegible] seems to have been at this time a very dangerous and quarrelsome person.

Canyon City—The Mountaineer says: A [illegible] of ours writing from Canyon City informs us that [illegible] the merchants is very brisk, and the [illegible] bountiful. Several new claims have lately [illegible] on Pine Creek near Canyon City which [illegible] from the prospects to pay well. The quartz mill [illegible] & Co has arrived and will soon be set up and [illegible]. The location is about three miles east of the Prairie Diggings. The removal of troops [illegible] has caused some excitement, and [illegible] have been put in circulation and for [illegible] quarters asking that the post shall not be [illegible]. The greater part of the Camp Harney grain was filled by the Grande Ronde valley farmers [illegible] a large surplus of grain remaining in the [illegible]. The farmers of John Day valley it is hoped will [illegible] look to their own interests, and not be con[illegible] [illegible] tors. The Indians at Camp Harney are [illegible] to be well satisfied with their treatment. [illegible] number of the City Journal will be issued on [illegible], 1st proximo.

We find in the Advocate the following [illegible] intelligence. The quarterly meeting [illegible] last Saturday and Sabbath in Portland charge [illegible] interesting. Several united with the [illegible] letter and on probation. The indications of [illegible] very cheering. Services continued. The [illegible] school in this city has an average attendance [illegible]. There are four Bible classes in it. The [illegible] on last Sabbath was addressed by the [illegible] and the pastor. Collection amounted [illegible] J F Caples, Superintendent. At the min[illegible] meeting on Monday last the question of Christian[illegible] the Chinese of this city came up for consideration. It was resolved to correspond with Bro Gibson [illegible] for this coast and see if a Chinese [illegible] could not be obtained to introduce the [illegible]

[illegible] University—We had the pleasure yesterday [illegible] with Prof O S Frambes, formerly Principal [illegible] now a Professor in Wallamet University [illegible] represents the school in a flatteringly prosperous condition. The present term will close on Thursday [illegible] 17th. President Rounds announces that the [illegible] examinations of classes will be held on Tuesday [illegible] and afternoon. On Wednesday at 9 A M [illegible] with exercises in music will commence [illegible] and close at 4 P M. On Thursday [illegible] to 12 M examination will be continued in [illegible]. And in the afternoon, commencing at 1 [illegible] public weekly Rhetorical Exercises of [illegible] original orations and compositions, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music, will be pre[illegible] the whole to close at an early hour. Patrons and [illegible] invited to attend.

[illegible].—A portion of one of our principal streets [illegible] dangerous for passage of teams in consequence of broken sewers, has been fenced in by our enterprising [illegible] authorities. This is well. Streets will get bad [illegible] while in spite of all the letting alone that can be [illegible] and in all such cases, a fence or two is the [illegible] most expeditious remedy possible. We suggest [illegible] Commissioner the propriety of putting [illegible] street at its intersection with Fourth [illegible] main was put down there last summer and the [illegible] it was laid, being filled in with loose [illegible] gouged out to nearly its original depth, [illegible] action of wagon wheels and water and [illegible] if not a dangerous obstruction. A fence [illegible]

[illegible] Do It—The San Francisco Chronicle men[illegible] fact that an inventive genius has suggested the [illegible] buildings on rollers or balls to prevent [illegible] by earthquakes. Without regard to the [illegible] of the [illegible] of the plan suggested we seriously [illegible] not to do it. They might wake [illegible] after a "Grecian bend," and find every [illegible] on to his neighbor's lot. It strikes [illegible] and things might get slightly mixed.

Prof. McCann's Soiree will take place at the Ward [illegible] new armory this evening—dancing [illegible] precisely at eight. Holders of tickets are re[illegible] to be present at that hour. Price of tickets [illegible], for gentleman and lady. We learn that there [illegible] a very large attendance but the hall [illegible], there is no danger of being crowded and [illegible] party may be expected.

[illegible] Real Estate Sales—To day at 10 o'clock A. M., Mr A B Richardson, auctioneer will offer for sale [illegible] and 13, in Central Block on the East side of North [illegible] street, between Ash and Vine. The latter has on [illegible] frame building. He will, also, in the [illegible], offer for sale a valuable tract of land. For [illegible], apply to Mr Richardson or better attend.

The Public Schools—The present term of the public schools of this city will close on Friday the 18th [illegible] of the Board of Directors invites the public to visit the schools during the week as follows: [illegible] Street School Wednesday Dec 16th, Central [illegible] Thursday 17th, North School Friday, 18th at 1 [illegible] of each day.

Circuit Court—Upton Judge—Proceedings of yesterday. R. W Allen vs County of Multnomah. Jury impanneled. action for damages sustained by child falling through bridge in East Portland. damages laid at [illegible],000. Caples and Beal for plaintiff. Gibbs and Trimble for defendant.

Weekly Produce Statement—The following were the receipts of produce by steamers during the week ending Dec. 11: 6 600 sacks flour 5 bales woolens 820 boxes apples, 25 hlf bbls dried apples, 30 boxes eggs 300 bags wheat, 233 sks feed 900 sks oats 46 bbls pork.

[illegible] Down.—The Ajax will sail to-day with a full [illegible] freight—not less perhaps than seven or eight hundred [illegible]. Shippers were cramming flour into her yesterday, in very lively style. Her cargo will consist of a [illegible] general assortment of produce.

The U S Courts—The U S Circuit and District [illegible] will convene at 10 o'clock this morning. In the [illegible] Court Judge Deady will announce the decision in [illegible] case of Coulson and wife vs The City of Portland [illegible] the railroad tax.

[illegible]—The types the other morning made us say a wrong thing about the Geo S. Wright. What we intended to say was that she sailed with a heavy freight instead of a light freight. Our attention was called to the [illegible] only last evening.

[illegible]—Cases of thieving, burglary and night [illegible] upon persons are multiplying at a somewhat fearful rate. People cannot do better than to keep a sharp [illegible] about their premises and when traveling dark [illegible].

Cleaning—Several cases of street cleaning [illegible] out yesterday. The attacks are usually however, [illegible] and of short duration and are not con[illegible]. No occasion for alarm.

[illegible] Patent Right for Sale.—We invite particular [illegible] to the advertisement of Mr A Myers who [illegible] to dispose of the right to manufacture and sell on this coast, Leffel's Turbine Water Wheel.

[illegible] Biz—Col Gray late Democratic member of [illegible] from Grant county will open to-day, [illegible] sensational saloon in White's new building, [illegible] of Morrison and Front.

[illegible]—We learn that the receipts of the Ladies Fair, [illegible] week, will amount to about $700 after paying all [illegible].

[illegible]—The weather put on a clean face and holiday dress yesterday. The clerk did himself credit.

Will Sail To-Day—The steamship Ajax will sail for [illegible] at four o'clock this afternoon.

[illegible]—All persons indebted to the firm of J. C [illegible] & Co will please call at their old stand [illegible] Front street before Saturday 12th inst to settle [illegible]. After that date all unpaid bills will be [illegible] hands for collection.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned who has always enjoyed [illegible] confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their [illegible] productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of it consumers, the very [illegible] though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, Dec. 11, 1868.

On the 9th gold was 135¼ at New York.

Legal Tenders are quoted at 73 [illegible].

New York—Wheat dull at $2 20@2 25. Flour nominal at $7@12.

Liverpool—Wheat dull at 12s.

San Francisco—Flour, superfine selling at about $4 75 for superfine and $5 75 for extra. Wheat, good shipping $1 75@1 77½; choice milling, $1 85; fair, $1 75; state quotable at $1 70@2 with an upward tendency. Sales of 100 sacks Oregon, on the 9th, at $2 15, 100 at $2 12½ and 200 at $2 15. On the 5th, which is our latest newspaper date, the Alta said, of flour: "The China demand, which we noted several days ago as forming the leading feature of the market, is well supplied at present. The Windward and National Eagle are the only [illegible] now up for Hongkong, and we understand that the bulk of the flour purchases for the former are made. This leaves the market in a rather slack condition at the present moment, New York shippers being disinclined to purchase at present prices, and Rio and Australia show no inquiry. We continue quotations: Superfine $4 25@4 75; shipping, extra, $5@5 60; bakers' and family extra, $5 50@5 87½." Of wheat, the same paper said: "The demand for export has almost entirely [illegible]. Vessels in port under engagement are completing cargo and clearing rapidly, and the bulk of cargo for the tonnage remaining is already secured. Exports yesterday and to-day aggregate 95,250 sacks. Prices, however, are maintained by light receipts and the indisposition of farmers to sell, which, coupled with the inability of exporters to make profitable shipments at the present ruling New York and Liverpool rates, cause an exceedingly quiet market. We have no round sales to report, but annex the following: 1,000 sacks choice milling at $1 82½; 255 do. fair coast shipping at $1 70; 3 000 do. fair shipping, private; 208 do. good milling at $1 75; 450 do. coast distilling at $1 45." Of oats the Alta says: "Oats show a decided improvement, the market exhibiting more buoyancy than has been seen for weeks past. The probability of no further heavy receipts from Oregon, and the advance in barley, cause considerable inquiry, and holders are firm at advanced rates. We quote fair to choice California, $1 75@2; fair to choice Oregon, $1 90@2 05. Holders of Oregon stock manifest no [illegible] to sell at present prices." Potatoes are quoted in the San Francisco Produce markets at 70c for [illegible], to $1 15 for extra good. Hay in light supply at $14@16 per ton. Butter firm at 41@44, at which figures the last consignment by steamer, closed out. Middlings dull and quotable at $25@27 50 for feed, and $30@35 for [illegible]. Fruit—apples and pears in good supply, the [illegible] at $1@1 50 per box; the latter at $1 25 to $2 00, according to variety and quality. Onions—4@4½c with an advancing tendency. Bacon—Oregon sides, 15c; Crown', 16½c; Oregon hams 16@17c for fair to choice. Lard—quotable, 12½ to 14c, in square tins. Beef—mess, $[illegible]17; family, $22. Pork—clear and extra, $25, mess [illegible] 50; prime, $16@18. Tallow—in good supply at 8½@9c. Wool—the market has quieted down materially [illegible] the last few weeks. Shippers have filled Eastern [illegible] to a considerable extent, and the small amounts now arriving offer no inducement to competition among buyers. Prices, however, remain steady at 17@18c for good to [illegible] grades, and 12½@12¾ for burry.

In [illegible] local produce market, wheat is a little lower; flour [illegible] quotations, and nearly all prices nominal. The [illegible] is going through even more dull than was anticipated. [illegible] are as yet no indications in any quarter of an improved demand for our staples, unless it be for oats, and we probably have no very great quantities of that [illegible] to sell. The prospects for our producers are dull.

[illegible] the market in most lines, dull, groceries, [illegible] however, a marked exception. Several of [illegible] have had all they could well do, during the [illegible] of sugars, still going up, and there is a [illegible] in most other groceries. In dry goods, [illegible] slight advance in cotton staples.

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

PORTLAND, Dec. 11, 1868.

Mr. Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes;

"It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago, of long standing entitles Dr. Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Ear-ache, Distressing Pains etc."

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes:

"I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief, and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success. I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for these complaints. I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil, dollar bottles, as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon, and I would not be without them in my house, and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply.

CHANGE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully, have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public, to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

MERCADO'S

Native California Wine

BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and G. A. Simon, defendant:

P. Samsevain, being duly sworn, says, "That the article known as Samsevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully, about the month of March, 1864, with all the said Samsevain Brothers having any concern in the manufacture thereof. The deponent has always known and considered said Mercado & Seully as the Sole Proprietors of the Samsevain California Wine Bitters."

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. Samsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Samsevain's California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS,

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar old yellow label, and see that the words, "MERCADO & SEULLY, SAN FRANCISCO," are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit imitations.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS

OF

Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

TELEGRAMS FROM

THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year.......$3 00.
